

USED ALLSTEEL 120 DEGREE WORKSTATION WITH HEIGHT ADJUSTABLE DESK

$1,049.00

$1049 per seat - 6-seat workstation configuration.

Create a collaborative open office layout with this Used Allsteel 120 Degree Workstation with Height Adjustable Desk. Designed in a 120-degree configuration, six individual cubicle desks connect to form a 'dogbone' workstation that makes efficient use of shared office space.

Each workstation includes a height adjustable desk, giving employees the flexibility to alternate between seated and standing work throughout the day. This Allsteel workstation is a great option for businesses looking for modern office cubicles that combine ergonomic adjustability, efficient space planning, and commercial-grade office furniture.

Features:

- Allsteel 120-degree workstation
- Height adjustable desk at each workstation
- Six individual workstations form a dogbone-shaped office layout
- Designed for collaborative and open office environments
- Commercial-grade used office furniture
- Must be purchased as a complete 6-pack

Pricing: $1,049 per seat. Sold only in 6-pack configurations for a total of $6,294 per Complete workstation group.
