

USED KNOLL GENERATION ERGONOMIC MESH DESK CHAIR - BLACK

$375.00

Designed by Knoll, the Generation ergonomic office chair redefined flexible seating with its innovative responsive back design. The unique mesh back flexes and moves with your body, providing exceptional support whether you're sitting upright, leaning back, or even sitting sideways. This pre-owned ergonomic office chair features adjustable seat depth, seat height, height-adjustable arms, and an adjustable lumbar support to help keep you comfortable all day. Finished in classic black with polished aluminum accents on the back frame and base, the Generation delivers premium style and performance at a fraction of the cost of buying new.

Features:

- Flexible black mesh backrest adapts to a wide range of sitting positions
- Ergonomic adjustable seat height and seat depth
- Height-adjustable arms
- Adjustable lumbar support
- Smooth-rolling caster base
- Ideal for home offices, corporate workspaces, and long-term computer use
